

MAINE

BOATS, HOMES & HARBORS

JULY 2014 • ISSUE 130

SUMMER
Cruisin'
CLASSIC

World's Fastest
LOBSTERBOATS

The Magazine of the Coast

Contents

JUNE / JULY 2014 ☆ VOLUME 27 ☆ NUMBER 3 ☆ ISSUE 130

In Every Issue

From the Publisher The Spirit of Home	5
Boatyard Dog® Unabashed Boat Enthusiast	6
Letters to the Editor We LOVE to hear from you!	8
View From the Porch By Peter Bass	11
What's Online	14
Awanadjo Almanack By Rob McCall	79
The Maine I Love Photograph by Ann-e Blanchard	96

Departments

A Letter From Home By Brooke Williams	21
How we got a boat and finally met our neighbors
A Postcard in Time By Peter H. Spectre	25
"Give me donuts or give me death!"
My Boat, My Harbor By Eric Hopkins	39
Adventures in a Boston Whaler shaped an artist's world vision
Saltwater Foodways By Sandra L. Oliver	51
An early journal provides insights into 18th century Maine gardening and food
COVER STORY
Off the Drawing Board By Art Paine Harrier 25 Sport	65
A Letter From Away By Dale R. Hamilton	73
An amateur sets out to build his own runabout
Small Adventures By Mimi Bigelow Steadman	77
Damariscotta: Waiting to be discovered

Features

A Boat for All Ages: The Herreshoff 12½ By Bill Mayher	16
Sturdy, comfortable and versatile, this design has stood the test of time
At Home in Port By Laurie Schreiber	26
Boatbuilders kick back on their waterborne dreams
I Should Have Named Her Serendipity By C. Daniel Smith	34
Who hasn't wanted to own a model of his sailboat?
Life Below the Mooring Ball By Ruth Hill	42
If you set it, they will come
A Quiet Exhibition By Peter H. Spectre	49
Visual arts must be seen to be appreciated
In the Garden By Lynette L. Walther	56
The useful and lovely plant known as mullein
William Irvine's Maine By Carl Little	60
Scottish-born painter of modernist landscapes
The Saga of the Lorna R. By Kristina Day Osgood	68
A beloved boat is found again and restored to top racing shape

ON THE COVER: The powerboat, Buffalo Soldier, shown here cruising across West Penobscot Bay with the Camden Hills in the background, was designed by C. Raymond Hunt and built more than 50 years ago. The new Hunt Harrier 25 Sport has many of the same great qualities. See story, page 65. Photo by Polly Saltonstall.