Award-Winning Magazine

Maine Boats, Homes & Harbors magazine is dedicated to the best of life on the coast. “The magazine demonstrates that the Maine coast is much more than just magnificent scenery,” said founder and publisher John K. Hanson, Jr. “It is also (and especially) people, traditional and modern boats, interesting architecture, and good food. We think of our magazine as looking at the Maine coast from the deck of a boat.”

Published five times a year, Maine Boats, Homes & Harbors magazine is geared toward people around the world who love a good read. Its pages are filled with the work of some of the most gifted writers, photographers, and artists in the business today. They tell the stories of talented and intriguing Mainers—architects, artists, boatbuilders, designers, home builders, visual artists, and craftsmen of all stripes—with humor, style, and insight. SUBSCRIBE TODAY at maineboats.com (it makes a great gift!).
