THE BACK COVE 32

The Back Cove Design Team presents the Back Cove 32. This newest model in the Back Cove range will incorporate the know-how and experience of over 700 previous Back Cove hulls, and the centuries of boatbuilding experience that yachts from Maine can offer.

She is built to thrive and safely navigate in the rugged conditions of the Atlantic Ocean and the rocky Maine coast. And her fuel economy will put a smile on the face of the most frugal Yankee.

At rest in the quiet coves and harbors, the Back Cove 32's elegant interior and efficient deck layout will enchant any cruising family with comfortable accommodations and ample social spaces.

BOATS, HOMES & HARBORS SHOW

Welcome to the 15th Annual Show!

Welcome to Rockland, the Penobscot Bay region, and the 2017 edition of the MBH&H Show. Here you will find a region of great beauty that is also blessed with great people—artists, boatbuilders, chefs, and craftsmen of all types—men and women doing extraordinary work.

The show is a merger of creativity with the power of the marketplace. It's an introduction to all that makes Maine tick and to the vibrancy of our coastal culture. On the show docks, vessels range from coastal schooners, waterborne classrooms, and Friendship sloops, to the most up-to-date powerboats available today. On the Concours d'Epifanes/Brokerage Dock, you can see firsthand the magic that's possible when much-loved classic designs are refitted by Maine boatbuilders.

All along the Maine coast, science, art, and commerce mingle, just as they do within the tents and on the grounds at the show. There are gems to be discovered, lessons to be learned, and new offerings from your favorite shops. It would take you weeks of travel to visit all these folks in person, but the show offers a concentrated infusion of the joy of life as it is expressed here.

So have that ice cream cone. Take home that necklace. Buy that boat. Life is to be savored. Enjoy.

All best,

Micron: Generations of Innovation

The innovation continues...

We are excited to introduce Micron WA as the newest addition to the Micron Technology family. Micron WA is a multi-seasonal, polishing, water-based antifouling with the unique Water Activated matrix. This novel paint technology delivers a crisp color, and premium long lasting protection for all waters!

The Micron Technology family offers a range of premium products that meets your needs while delivering true and proven performance. For generations Micron Technology has been protecting boats coast to coast by improving fuel efficiencies while reducing paint build up through controlled polishing.

Whatever the year, you know you'll always have the latest and best in Micron Technology.

Boat Highlights On Land & Sea

Icon Boats on the Docks (End of Dock B)

FRIDAY: Step aboard Koukla and find out what Maine adventure sailing is all about.

SATURDAY: Tour the Capt. Susan J. Clark. This 70-foot crew boat serves as the primary navigation training vessel for Castine's Maine Maritime Academy. Each student station includes a full Furuno navigation package, with radar, chart plotter, electronic compass, and fathometer.

SUNDAY: Friendship Sloop Fest. Persistence, a lovely example from the days of fishing under sail, restored and presented by Rockland's Sail, Power, and Steam Museum, plus Gladiator and other Friendship sloops.

NEW! ICELANDx207 (Outdoor West)

A multimedia installation by Portland photographer Justin Levesque housed in a shipping container on show grounds. In September 2015, Levesque spent nine days on board an Eimskip container ship as it traveled from Portland to Iceland. He chronicled life aboard with portraits of the all-Icelandic crew and images of the revitalized and bustling International Marine Terminal in Portland. All weekend. Sponsored by Eimskip, The Kindling Fund, Maine Arts Commission, Maine Port Authority, Maine North Atlantic Development Office, Bristol Seafood, Grapheteria, University of Southern Maine

Maine Made Products

(Tent F & Show Grounds)

Dozens of members of the Maine Made program are exhibiting their wares at the show, offering items created from pottery and metal, wood and granite, field and farm. Look for the “Maine Made: America’s Best” logo throughout the show grounds to view a wonderful selection of gift items, statement pieces, boats, and lasting heirlooms, all crafted right here in Maine. All weekend.

We support Maine Boats, Homes & Harbors.
Well, mostly Homes.

Before a single nail is hammered, a foundation of trust is built. You need more than an experienced builder or proven architect. You need a partner. People you can collaborate with, talk to, and trust. This is the true foundation for every dream house. That is what we do.

15th Annual World Championship Boatyard Dog® Trials

Sunday, August 13 at 10:30 • Between the Pearl Restaurant and Middle Pier Light-hearted head-to-paw competition

Watch as a pre-selected pack of courageous canine competitors* wows the crowd. They'll navigate a gear-filled dock, fetch random objects from the water, get in and out of an unstable dinghy, and present a "freestyle" act of their own creation. (Plus, either dog or handler WILL get wet!) The winner will receive fun prizes and be featured in the regular Boatyard Dog® column in Maine Boats, Homes & Harbors magazine, which is where all this silly fun got its start.

Sponsored by Loyal Biscuit and Bell's Furry Friends Photography

**NOTE: Contestants have been pre-chosen. No other pets will be allowed on show grounds.*

ROCKLAND'S CULINARY SCENE

by Robin McIntosh

As Rockland appears on ever more lists of “best places” to visit or live, and as its arts and cultural scene continues to expand, so too do the city’s fabulous food options. Whether farm-to-table or ocean-to-table, “fresh” and “creative” are two words that can be applied throughout the city. Here’s a round-up of eateries within walking distance of the show; a plethora of tasty treats to take you from breakfast to a late-night snack.

From the show grounds, you can see Rockland’s three waterfront restaurants: The Pearl, Archer’s on the Pier, and the Landings Restaurant. Each offers spectacular views coupled with freshly prepared seafood and a wide variety of other specialties.

Walk up the hill for the Time Out Pub, Hills Seafood, the Myrtle St. Tavern, and Park Street Grille. Continue toward the center of town, and you’ll find Eclipse Restaurant and the Brass Compass (home of the King of Lobster club sandwich, winner of the Bobby Flay Throw-Down).

Wander to Oak St. to find Café Miranda, with an eclectic menu that’s long on content and creativity (and a bathroom filled with Elvis memorabilia). Hand-crafted pastas and unique Italian fare are found at Rustica, and for an atmosphere of unhurried dining from full meals to light tapas, stop in at In Good Company. Farther down Main St., Sammy’s Deluxe features a simple yet creative selection of menu items that changes daily.

Suzuki's is a Boston Globe recommendation for sushi. For an urban flair, Fog Bar & Café is tops for hip beverages and inspired menus. New this year is darn fine curry, which shares space with the Daily Perch (see breakfast). DFC's offerings can only be ordered at dfcurry.com; cash is not accepted.

Looking for pub fare? Waterworks on Lindsey Street, Trackside Station on Union Street, or the brewed-on-Main Street beers at Rock Harbor Pub & Brewery all fill the bill.

For lighter fare, grab lunch at Clan MacLaren, or head to Wasses' Hot Dogs —a Rockland institution. Rock City Roasters & Café is home to locally roasted coffee and a unique menu of sandwiches and take out. Subs and burritos are found at Close to Home, and for breads and a fabulous selection of baked goods or ready-to-go sandwiches, Atlantic Baking Company has shelves and baskets filled to the brim. Home Sweet Home is Rockland's newest bakery. Other take-out options are Harborside Lunch, the Thai Tugboat at the Ferry Terminal, The Lobster Shack on Main St., and Claws a bit farther north. When the show is not in residence, Amato's offers Italian fare in Buoy Park and the Thursday morning Farmers' Market takes place in Harbor Park.

Heading home to cook? Don't forget to check out Main Street Market's take-out counter and their offerings of fresh produce and Maine food products. Heading toward Camden, the Good Tern Coop's healthy and organic offerings are open to all. In the other direction, Jess's Market has just-off-the-boat seafood, and both Wiggins Meat Market and Hops & Chops are excellent choices for meat to take home for the grill.

To start the day right, Home Kitchen (also open for lunch), Rockland Café (open through dinner), the Daily Perch Café (breakfast, brunch, lunch), and the Brass Compass (breakfast and lunch) are local favorites. Hole in the Wall Bagel is another option farther north.

Sweet tooth? Who can resist a delish ice cream or gelato? Cone Home is just past the ferry terminal, Lulu's is on Oak Street, and Snow Drop Confections, Rocky's Frozen Treats, and Gelato Rose are all on Main Street. Dairy Queen on Park Street is another "go to" place for a cold treat on a hot day. Candy Harbor has a great selection of chocolate & candies.

For take-home culinary treats, swing by FIORE Artisan Olive Oils & Vinegars, or grab a Bixby & Co. chocolate bar at a local shop. This special treat is manufactured just off Main Street.

It's a long walk (or short drive), but we'd be remiss to not mention Primo Restaurant. With a two-time James Beard-award-winning chef/owner and an on-site farm, you won't soon forget the farm-to-table experience there.

Can't decide? Join Maine Foodie Tours for a lunchtime culinary walking tour of Rockland and sample your way through the offerings at six local locations. www.MaineFoodieTours.com.

Midcoast Maine, and especially Rockland, has become a magnet for artists and artisans of all stripes—the creative economy is alive and well here. On most any given day, especially in high summer, there are loads of opportunities to get in touch with the region’s creative spirit.

The downtown Rockland gallery scene is a particularly lively one. Main Street is lined with galleries and a First Friday Art Walk kicks off each month (www.artsinrockland.org). New to Rockland (but not to the region) is the Center for Maine Contemporary Art. CMCA moved from their long-time home in Rockport into cutting edge purpose-built digs at 21 Winter Street designed by Toshiko Mori (cmcanow.org). The contemporary and gallery art scenes are complemented by the offerings at the Farnsworth Art Museum, which celebrates Maine’s considerable role in American art, has one of the nation’s largest collections of works by sculptor Louise Nevelson, and features works by Andrew, N.C., and Jamie Wyeth. One might say that the Farnsworth began it all; it has been a downtown anchor on Main Street since 1948 (www.farnsworthmuseum.org).

and new movie releases (www.rockland-strand.com). Saturday, August 12, the New-York based French Pop + Latin + Jazz group Banda Magda will perform at 7:30 p.m. Bay Chamber Concerts presents mainly classical music at the Strand as well as at venues in nearby Camden and Rockport. The North Atlantic Blues

Festival brings big-name blues artists to Harbor Park each July, and the Lobster Festival in early August also features live music. To help tie it all together, Rockland Main Street organizes an annual Summer Solstice celebration (June) and the Festival of Lights (November) (www.rocklandmainstreet.com). ★
