Features

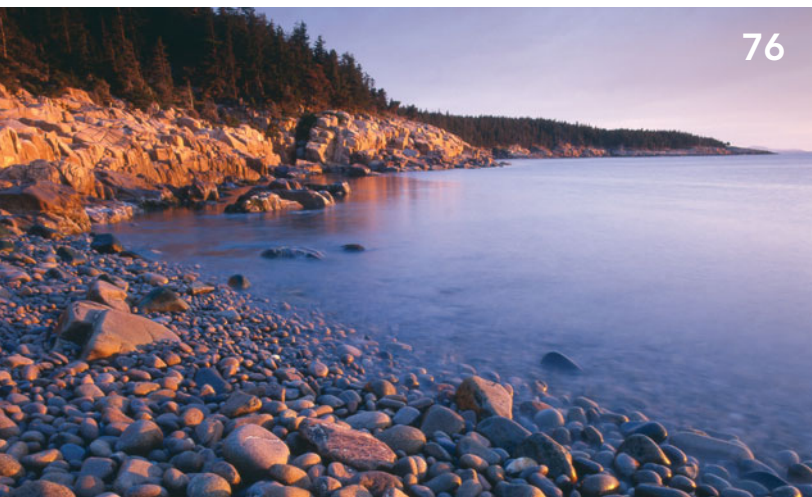

- 28 Wilbur Yachts: A Family Business, A Business's Family
When you talk entrepreneurial spirit on the coast of Maine, you talk Wilbur Yachts.
BY BRIAN ROBBINS
- 36 Crafting Time
There's an old saying that the best boat is the last boat, and for Mr. Sam Guild this proved to be true.
BY RICHARD KING

BY CARL LITTLE
- 56 MAINE BOATS, HOMES & HARBORS SHOW Tradition Shapes Innovation™ at our seventh annual boat and home show.
August 7-9, 2009, on the waterfront in Rockland: boats in the water, boats on land, fine art, architecture, furniture, gifts, jewelry, food, live music, zany events, and loads of fun.
- 60 A Farmhouse Full of Ships
Up a narrow wooden staircase, under several layers of wallpaper in bedrooms that once belonged to children, early-nineteenth-century illustrations of enough ships and watercraft to fill a small harbor have been discovered.
BY ROBERT LLOYD WEBB
- 68 Knots, Nautical Miles, & King Henry's Nose
In the nautical world, we mean what we say and say what we mean.
ILLUSTRATIONS AND STORY BY JAN ADKINS
- 76 The State of Maine's Beaches
Some are accessible, some are not. Some are stable, some are not.
Some are clean, some are not. All are our responsibility.
